CONSIGED BY: EDGEWOOD ANGUS

A true sale feature and appropriate selection for the honor of lot 1 status in this prominent event. Edgewood Angus needs no introduction, and their influence on genetic selections within the Angus breed over the past decade is undeniable. Here is your chance to get a blending of one of the most reliable and predictable donor cows within the Edgewood program, along with some of the most current and highly sought after genetic matings in the entire breed. The donor dam of this pregnancy is a full sister to the hot young Select Sires member E W A Elevate 1166. Furthermore, study the incredible breed leading rankings this donor offers for $M and HP, she is not a one-trick pony! Consider the combination of mating this exceptional donor with the $500,000 Connealy Craftsman, and the upside potential and herd improving potential within this genetic package is unlimited. This heifer pregnancy is due August 28th, 2024. The recipient female carrying the pregnancy is a registered cow (19515754).
